Favorites Make a Good Record of Victories at Guttenburg

TOANO'S SPLENDID SHOWING.

Peculiar Methods of the Racing Judges at Nashville,

That same old trio of tavorites won at Guttenourg yesterday. It seems curious that three favorites win at the hilltop track day after day. This is a better average than is shown on the larger tracks in warm weather During the first twenty-eight days racing at Guttenburg there were 167 races run Favorites won eighty one times showing that the public was right in about 49 per cent. of Twenty-three of these favorites started a less than 3 to 5 on. Form and system players cannot complain of inconsistent running after glancing at these figures. There have been during the past week, but on the whole racing is conducted pretty fairly on the bill.

The racing yesterday was excellent. There was only one stirring finish, yet the races were well contested and the best horses won. ilouston was the choice of the talent in the first race, and rumor credited Mike Dwyer making one of his characteristic plunger on the colt. It is hard to believe that Mr Dwyer lost very much money on Houston. The going was heavy save on the outside, and Houston was thus compelled to run farther than any other horse in the race.

Nevertheless, Houston was heavily played by somebody and the twient got aboard. They were never in it. Cynosure, always at me in the heavy going, went to the front in the stretch and won very easily from Tioga, who was also well played. Houston was beaten out for third place by Apollo.

Florimor, after having dumped his owner twice, won his maiden race in the second event. His race the day before was not a bad one by any means, for he was just galloping for three-quarters of a mile. On the strength of this race the talent made him the favorite though it is doubtful if Jack McDonald played

A tremendous tip on Claymore made that gelding's price drop rapidly, and at the close he was nearly even up with Florimor. The latter won easily from Claymore, who got badly in the final furlong because Weber made too much use of her in the first quarter. Patrick will do to watch, and so will

The third race went to the favorite, Esquimau, who was seven pounds better off than when he last met Perild. He also had Sims up instead of Penny, and this advantage brought him so close to Perild that the talent could figure nothing else in it. Therefore, they plunged on Esquimau and landed the money easily.

Perild was also heavily backed, but was unfortunate, for, as Tommy Flynn said after the race, "Sandstone kept bearing on me all the way down the backstretch, and I couldn't get away." Perild went after Esquimau in the final quarter, but the old horse was too good and he stayed in front to the end. The comments on Perild and his rider are unjust. Boy and horse did their best. Sandstyne and Virgie had a hot lightfor the place, the former landing by a neck.

The fourth race went to the Abundance

The fourth race went to the Abundance colt at odds of 15 to 1. The readers of The Evenno World were fully informed of the horse's form and they managed to win quite a tidy sum through The Evenna World's selection. Uncle Sim, who was named to run second, got there all right with comfortable odds against him. The finish between the two was a hot one, and Gambler was right bang up against them. Mackintosh did not fancy the going and Tringle was short of work. . . .

Firefly, a hot favorite in the last race, swerved in the final sixteenth and let Peiham get up on the inside and win. Maggie Murphy and Minry D. would have been closer up had not their jeckeys idiotically raced them to death in the first half mile.

The Association yesterday received word from "Pomp" Brodie that he would be on hand to-day to appear befor the Committee in relation to the Manhansett affair. It is probable that nothing will come of the affair probable that nothing will come of the affair even after all the luss. It is a good bet that Brodie won't give up the horse in any event.

Jockey Ray had two mounts yesterday and landed one of them a winner. He is a good boy to follow, and one will always get a ride for his money from him.

The management at Garfield Park are, it is said, thinking of heating their track by steam, so that the cold weather will not freeze them, as it did a few days ago. A local company will, it is said, put in a layer of inch steam pipes, three or four feet apart and about a foot and a half under ground. This will cent 430,000, and the company guarantees that the track will never freeze.

J. II. McAvoy, the trainer of Fabian, which was pulled at Gloucester a few days ago, has been reinstated, Judge Nelson being convinced that he was an innocent. Mullally, the jockey, has been rulled off, however.

The judges of racing at Nashville must have had their idnes with them yesterday. They were badly mixed up overlooking Ireland in the indic dash, who won, and not even placing flusse Duke, who won the five-furlong dash. One man then went to the judges and asked what he should play in the last race. The judges reseated this bit of sarcasm, which was rather humorous in fact, and had the man, whose name was Stevenion, ejected from the grounds. . . .

A Big Attendance of Society Folk Expected at the Finish.

The sixth and last day of the great beauty show in Madison Square Garden opened au-spiciously this morning.

Martha Washington. Both ran well

The third race is hardly worth mentioning, save to say that Toano made an exhibition of St. James. Rambler and other good horses. Toano, the cripple, is a great horse.

The third race went to the favorite, Esquine floor and thence on a tour among the stalls where the miniature animals were stabled.

GOING IN TO BE JUDGED.

The children went into raptures over the little horses, but when they came to the stalls of Dolly and Jennie and the baby ponies their delight was unbounded.

To run their tiny hands through the woolly-like coats of the cute colts, hardly bigger than sleep, which they resemble more than horses, was the acme of childish pleasure and their treble pipes startled the stately hackneys about them into neighs of wonder.

For the first two hours this morning the ring was open—for the display of horses for sale, but advantage was taken of the opportunity to give other exhibits needed exercise. The grooms, however, were deprived of their customary fun at the fences, and the jumpers that came out were only given a gentle canter.

James Freyland, the rider who got a broken finger last night when he took a fall with Ontarlo in the high-lumping contest, was all right to-day, although he will not ride again at this show, owing to the shock and his disabled hand.

Jim Blute has a bloody car as the result of his fall with Punch, that usually steady timber topper. GOING IN TO BE JUDGED.

LIPTING HIM FOR THE JUMP. Little Charley Johnson, the colored infant, was out on Tom Hitchcock's Red Baron; Mr. William Suilivant Allen rode the black Canadian mare that his bay mare Sweetheart won by her clever jumping, and the great jumper Bismarck, with a groom up, took a turn about the tanbark inclosure.

This is the programme prepared for the last day;

show places.

With an estimated attendance of 90,000 for the week it will be seen that a modest fortune has been expended in six days for the pleasure of gazing at the equine and New York's Four Hundred.

COURT COUNTS RYAN OUT.

Judge Kennedy's Orders to the Onondaga County Canvassers.

[BY ABSOCIATED PRESS.] noon to-day issued an order to the Onondaga County Board of Canvassers that the errone-ous returns in the First Assembly District, reciting errors in twenty-seven of the fifty-two election districts, shall be sent back for correction, and when such returns are received to proceed and complete the canvass. The Board must not adjourn for more than three days while awaiting the corrected returns, and is not to issue any statement of certificate of the result without further order of the Court. The Judge ignores the certificate issued yesterday in favor of Ryan, Democrat. A stay will be obtained at once by counse of the Democratic members of the Canvassing Board and an appeal taken to the General Term, now in session here.
